

PERSONNEL

GENERAL PERSONNEL – Time Off for Meeting Attendance by Elected Officials

After application to and with approval of the Regional Superintendent or his/her designee, elected officials of a unit of local government or school district shall be given time off from employment without compensation for the purpose of attending an official meeting of the unit of government or school district.

Approved: 07/01/01