

PERSONNEL

GENERAL PERSONNEL – Permanent Disability

The Regional Office of Education will make every effort to accommodate employees' disabilities. However, where an employee is continuously absent from work for a period of one calendar year, the employee's disability may be deemed to be permanent, and the employee will be terminated.

An employee may file a petition, with rationale, requesting an extension of the one-year period of disability.