

INSTRUCTION

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

It shall be the policy of the Regional Office of Education to provide for dispassionate, unbiased, unprejudiced, and scientific study of controversial issues, in order that the pupil may have an opportunity to study such issues in a class atmosphere void of partisanship and bias. The discussion of such issues shall relate to the subject matter of the course.