STUDENT RECORDS – Parental Access

Upon the written request of either parent or a student whose parents are divorced or separated, copies of the following materials, which are furnished to one parent, shall be furnished by mail to the other parent, unless a court order exists to the contrary.

1. reports of the student's academic progress;
2. reports of the student's emotional and physical health;
3. notices of school-initiated parent-teacher conferences;
4. notices of major school-sponsored events that involve student-parent interaction (such as open houses); and
5. copies of the school calendar.
