

ROE – COMMUNITY RELATIONS

PUBLIC INFORMATION PROGRAM – News Conferences and Interviews

News conferences shall be held as deemed appropriate by the Regional Superintendent.

Interviews with staff members may be a useful tool to provide the news media with information regarding Regional Office of Education program and policies. Individuals shall exercise personal and professional responsibility whenever discussing ROE programs and policies with the news media. Individuals shall avoid answering questions on topics covered by the laws of confidentiality.